

Dear FCC,

Please do not take MY Klove radio station from me by changing the FM translator service to a LPFM station.

Klove is a huge blessing to my family. They have helped us through very difficult times and helped us celebrate good times. It is a safe harbor for my children from the vulgarity of the world. Their ministry helps so many hundreds, probably thousands, of people every year.

Thank you,
Janine Clements